* * *

I learned many a lesson from my late Father, and could have learned more had I been smart enough to take it in. One thing I did learn: always keep an old shoey felt hat. When Dad got decked out to work in his garden, he was dressed for the occasion, and was dressed like a overhalbilited First Chimn of Poverty Row. I kept insisting that he wear a belt instead of suspenders, get some coveralls or overalls or some such. . . but no sir. End never was so happy as when he got his old garden clothes and set out with a hoe . . . and he liked it best right in the middle of the day so he could perspire by the gallon. I never thought much of all this until there was a sudden downpour of rain last Wednesday, and I had my jalopy hat ready and got out a multifeved raincoat, overshoes and flashlight and very brazenly set out for town to fetch the evening newspapers, looking like a working member of the 160th Alabama Infantry who just couldn't believe that General Lee had Surrendered

Baptism conducted
"Why Baptism?"
for consideratords them.-His disciples) Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, but he that believeth not shall be damned."

"Some people said Pastor Carpenter think these texts should be minimized they refer to others in the same way, some churches attempt to spiritualize baptism. Others believe we should just be sprinkled," Acts 16: read the story verses 25-34. Here Paul and Silas is speaking to the Jailer (V 30-33) who fell down at their feet and cried out, "Sirs what must I do to be saved?" "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved and thy house". V. 33 "And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes and was baptized, he and all his straightway" Rom 6:3, 4. "Know ye not that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?" therefore we are buried with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

Baptism is spoken of here as symbolic of the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ see Rom. 6:5 and Matt 3:13-17 V 16 first part, "And Jesus when he was baptized went up straightway out of the water." "Why Bistinty?" such baptism many call it. In John 3:5 Jesus gives Nicodemus the answer, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee except a man be born of the water and of the spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of heaven. Rom 6:6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin." v-7 "Now if we be dead with Christ, We believe that we shall also live with him."

We were honored with many visitors last Sabbath, Miss E. M. Redelstein, a missionary nurse who gave us some interesting experiences of her 10 years service in China and five years in Formosa.
